Overview

Giffet executive team, also known as an executive leadership team (ELT) or C-suite, is a group of senior leaders who are responsible for the strategic and operational direction of an organization:

Responsibilities: Set goals, develop plans, and implement strategies to achieve success. They also manage budgets, make financial decisions, and oversee employee teams.

Members: Typically include the CEO, COO, CFO, CPO, CTO, and CRO.

Collaboration: The team works together as a collaborative decision-making body to execute the company's mission and vision.

Size: Some say that the ideal size for an executive team is around five people, as this is large enough to have diverse skills but small enough to get things done.

Effectiveness: Great executive teams are characterized by communication, selflessness, hard work, strategy, and support.

CEO/Ownerⁱ

Giffet Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is responsible for leading the organization or company. The CEO position started as of January 1, 2007, from the startup of Giffet Inc. until the present.

ⁱ The CEO oversees the overall management of the company, while the owner has sole proprietorship of the company. It is possible that the CEO of a company is also the owner, but the owner of a company doesn't necessarily have to also be the CEO. The two have many differences as well as many similarities.
